Fifty Contemporary One-Act Plays

Edited by

FRANK SHAY and PIERRE LOVING

HIS volume contains FIFTY REPRESENTATIVE ONE-ACT PLAYS of the MODERN THEATER, chosen from the dramatic works of contemporary writers all over the world and is the second volume in the Stewart Kidd Dramatic Anthologies, the first being European Theories of the Drama, by Barrett H. Clark, which has been so enthusiastically received.

The editors have scrupulously sifted countless plays and have selected the best available in English. One-half the plays have never before been published in book form; thirty-one are no longer available in any other edition.

The work satisfies a long-felt want for a handy collection of the choicest plays produced by the art theaters all over the world. It is a complete repertory for a little theater, a volume for the study of the modern drama, a representative collection of the world's best short plays.

TWO SLATTERNS AND A KING

Stewart Kidd Modern Plays

Edited by FRANK SHAY

To meet the immensely increased demands of the play-reading public and those interested in the modern drama, Stewart Kidd are issuing under the general editorship of Frank Shay a series of plays from the pens of the world's best contemporary writers. No effort is being spared to secure the best work available, and the plays are issued in a form that is at once attractive to readers and suited to the needs of the performer and producer. Buffalo Express: "Each play is of merit. Each is unlike the other. The group furnishes a striking example of the realistic trend of the modern drama."

From time to time special announcements will be printed giving complete lists of the plays.

SHAM, a Social Satire in One Act. By Frank G. Tompkins.

Originally produced by Sam Hume, at the Arts and Crafts Theatre, Detroit.

San Francisco Bulletin: "The lines are new and many of them are decidedly clever."

Providence Journal: "An ingenious and merry little one-act play."

THE SHEPHERD IN THE DISTANCE, a Pantomime in One Act. By Holland Hudson.

Originally produced by the Washington Square Players.

Oakland Tribune: "A pleasing pantomime of the Ancient East."

MANSIONS, a Play in One Act. By Hildegarde Flanner.
Originally produced by the Indiana Little Theatre Society.

Three Arts Magazine: "This thoughtful and well-written play of Characters and Ideals has become a favorite with Little Theatres and is now available in print."

HEARTS TO MEND, a Fantasy in One Act.

By H. A. Overstreet.

Originally produced by the Fireside Players, White Plains, N. Y. St. Louis Star: "It is a light whimsy and well carried out." San Francisco Chronicle: "No one is likely to hear or read it without real and legitimate pleasure."

SIX WHO PASS WHILE THE LENTILS BOIL.

By Stuart Walker.

Originally produced by the Portmanteau Players at Christodora House, New York City.

Brooklyn Eagle: "Literary without being pedantic, and dramatic without being noisy."

PROLOGUE

EPILOGUE
SPOKEN
BY CHANCE

PROLOGUE

I am that cunning infidel
By men called CHANCE,—you know me well.
It is through me you met your wives;
Through me your harvest blights or thrives;
And one and all, through me, to-day
Hither you came to see the play,
Which if your favor still you lend,
As now, so on until the end,
You shall be taught what way a King
Though a sublime and awful thing
And even wise, may come to be
A laughing-stock,—and all through me!

(Exit)

(ENTER KING)

KING

I am the King of all this land:
I hold a sceptre in my hand;
Upon my head I wear a crown;
Everybody stands when I sit down. (Sits)

CHANCE (Appearing to audience; he is invisible throughout the play to the other players in it.)

Excepting me,—please bear in mind
I sit whenever I feel inclined. (Sits)

KING

Although my lands are wide and long, My walls right thick, my armies strong, I am not wholly satisfied.

CHANCE

That is because you have no bride.

KING

Who speaks?—Come forth and, if you dare, Say once again what causes my care! Why I am discontent with life!

CHANCE

It is because you have no wife.

KING

A woman in my royal house! A woman! A wife! A bride! A spouse! Bold stranger, this is not the cure, For a woman I could never endure!

CHANCE

Per-CHANCE to-morrow you will find You have altered your imperial mind.

(Exeunt KING and CHANCE severally)

(ENTER TIDY)

TIDY

I am TIDY, I have been
All my life both neat and clean.
From my outside to my in
Clean am I unto my skin.
Every day into a bucket
My hands I dip, my head I duck it;
And if the water plenty be
I sometimes wet some more of me.
This is my kitchen, where you will find
All things pleasant and to your mind;
Against the wall in orderly pairs—
One, two,—one, two,—observe my chairs.

In the middle of the room my table stands:
I would not move it for many lands.
My basins and bowls are all in their places;
The bottoms of my pots are as clean as your faces.

My kettle boils so cheerily,
It is like a friendly voice to me;
About my work I merrily sing,
And I brush my hearth with a white duck's wing.
Oh, full is every curboard, sharp is every

Oh, full is every cupboard, sharp is every knife!—

My bright, sunny kitchen is the pride of my life!

(Exit TIDY)

(ENTER SLUT)

SLUT

I am SLUT; I am a slattern,
You must not take me for your pattern.
I spend my days in slovenly ease;
I sleep when I like and I wake when I please.
My manners, they are indolent;
In clutter and filth I am quite content.
Here is my kitchen, where I stir up my messes,
And wear out my old shoes and soiled silk dresses.

My table sags beneath the weight Of stale food and unwashed plate; The cat has tipped the pitcher o'er,— The greasy stream drips onto the floor; Under the table is a broken cup— I am too tired to pick it up.

(Exit SLUT)

(ENTER KING)

KING

Now I will no longer tarry
For I think that I will marry.
Now the one thing in my life
Is to marry me a wife.
But I will not be content
With a wench that's indolent,
Or take a slattern for a spouse,—
I will go from house to house,
Unheralded—that there may be
No cleaning up because of me—
And that maid whose kitchen's neatest
Will I have to be my sweetest.

(Exit KING)

(CHANCE APPEARS)

CHANCE

That I am absent do not fear
For that you have not seen me here,
For know, I oft invisibly
Do move among the things you see;
And to confuse and thwart the King
Through Slut and Tidy, is a thing
Dear to my nature,—therefore heed,
And you shall see a show indeed!

(Exit CHANCE)

(Enter TIDY in great disorder)

TIDY

Oh, dear, oh, dear, what shall I do? Oh, such a plight I never knew! Though I arose as is my way An hour before the break of day,

Here it is noon, and nothing done; The milk has soured in the sun. And the sweet, pretty duck I broiled A neighbor's dog has dragged and spoiled: I beat him with my hands and wept! Straight through the window then he leapt, And through the window after him. With scratched face and bruised limb. And on through mire and briar and bog Hours and hours I chased that dog, Stumbling, uttering awful cries— While into my kitchen swarmed the flies! I came back at half-past ten! Oh, what a sight did greet me then! My fair white sheets I hung so fine Down in the black muck under the line! And out of the oven from cakes 'n' pies 'n' Beautiful tarts the thick smoke risin'! I knelt down my tarts to remove, And my quince jelly that stood on the stove Up did boil, and, as you see, Boiled itself all over me!-All over the floor, all over the room,— Whereat I ran to fetch the broom-The broom! The broom—instead of the mop! To fetch a broom to wipe up slop! And with its handle smashed the clock's face, Getting glass all over the place, And knocked the dishes off the shelf. And fell to my knees and cut myself, And wept and cried and when I would rise Could not see for the tears in my eyes; So tripped on a chair and, to save a fall, Caught at the table, then flat did sprawl,

Dragging the table down with me, And everything on it, as well you may see! I cannot live in such a state! But where to begin is past my pate!

(Enter KING)

KING

I am the King of all these lands:
Down upon your knees and hands.
Wishing to marry me, I have said
That the tidiest maiden I would wed
In all my realm, wherefore I go
From kitchen to kitchen, that I may know
And judge for myself what maid is worth
To sit at my side in feasting and in mirth.
Untidy Spill-time, it is easy to see
That my fair bride you never will be.

TIDY

Oh, great King, hear me when I say This has been a most unusual day! It is by chance alone you see In such a state my kitchen and me! I can set us both to rights in a minute!

KING

In vain! I have set a trap and caught you in it! Vain, wench, your lies and your pretense! I see what I see and I hie me hence!

(Exit KING)
(Exit TIDY, weeping)

(ENTER SLUT)

SLUT

Lest you know me not in this disguise I tell you I am SLUT, and I tell you no lies.

My face and my hands are clean and neat: Fresh is my frock, trim are my feet. But I assure you you are not wrong To think that so tidy I shall not be for long. And if the story you wish from me, I will tell you how this came to be: Dull was the day and tedious my book; I saw no pleasure wherever I might look; I had done everything that I knew how to do, And I could think of nothing new. But at last I thought of one Thing that I had never done. And I said, "I will take a broom, And I will sweep this room! I will wash this floor!" I had never washed it before— "All things in order will I arrange, Although I hate order, for it will be a change." So here I am, as you can see— I and my kitchen as clean as can be. But in a room as clean as this My bones ache and I find no bliss. So watch, and soon it will appear Much less orderly and drear.

(Enter KING)

KING

Down upon your knees and hands! I am the King of all these lands. Wishing to marry me, I have said That the tidiest maiden I would wed In all my realms, wherefore I go From kitchen to kitchen that I may know—Yet stay! This kitchen is so tidy, I think that you must be my bridey!

As far and wide as I have been So neat a kitchen I have not seen; Therefore I say you are my wife, For the remainder of your life.

SLUT (aside)

To point him out his error at first I intended, But least said is soonest mended.

(Exeunt KING with SLUT)

(Enter TIDY)

TIDY

Now once again with me All is as it is wont to be. Now once again you see me stand The tidiest lady in the land. If the King should see me now He would tell a different tale, I trow.

(Enter KING)

KING

Oh, lovely lady, who are you, That I am a talking to?

TIDY

She am I whom you did scorn This very day at morn.

KING

It may not be as you have said, For you would I gladly wed!

TIDY

I thank you for the favor, but They tell me you have married SLUT!

KING

Oh, cock's bones! And strike me dead! Is it a Slut that I have wed?

(Enter SLUT dressed as at first)

SLUT

So here you dally whilst I sit at home! Never any more abroad shall you roam, But sit at home with me for the rest of your life, For I am your lawful wedded wife!

KING

Oh, woe is me, what a life will be mine!

It is too late now to repine:
Home with me you come for the rest of your life,

For SLUT is your lawful wedded wife!

(Exit SLUT with KING)

TIDY

A slattern is a fearful sight,—ah, me! What pleasure it gives so tidy to be!

(Exit TIDY)

EPILOGUE

Now that the play is at an end, By CHANCE you have enjoyed it, friend; By CHANCE to you his sweet was gall; By CHANCE you slumbered through it all. Howe'er it be, it was by CHANCE The KING was led so merry a dance, By CHANCE that TIDY met disgrace, By CHANCE alone SLUT washed her face;

From morn to eve the whole day long
It was by CHANCE that things went wrong.
Wherefore, good friends, t' escape derision,
Be not o'er hasty in your decision,
For he who heedeth not this rule
BY CHANCE HE WILL BE CALLED A FOOL!

European Theories of the Drama

By BARRETT H. CLARK

An Anthology of Dramatic Theory and Criticism from Aristotle to the present day in a series of selected texts, with Commentaries, Biographies and Bibliographies

A book of paramount importance. This monumental anthology assembles for the first time the epoch-making theories and criticisms of the drama from the beginnings in Greece to the present, and each excerpt is chosen with reference to its effect on subsequent dramatic writing. The texts alone are immensely valuable, and the comments constitute a history of dramatic criticism.

It is the most important body of doctrine on the drama to be obtained, appeals to all who are interested in the theatre, and is indispensable to students.

The introduction to each section of the book is followed by an exhaustive bibliography. Each writer whose work is represented is made the subject of a brief biography. The entire volume is rendered doubly valuable by the index, which is worked out in great detail.

THE PROVINCETOWN PLAYS

Edited by GEORGE CRAM COOK and FRANK SHAY With a foreword by HUTCHIN HAPGOOD

Containing the ten best plays produced by the Provirtown Players, which are:

"SUPPRESSED DESIRES", George Cram Cook and Susan Glass

"ARIA DA CAPO", Edna St. Vincent Millay.

"COCAINE", Pendleton King. "NIGHT", James Oppenheim.

"ENEMIES", Hutchin Hapgood and Neith Boyce.

"THE ANGEL INTRUDES", Floyd Dell.

"BOUND EAST FOR CARDIFF", Eugene O'Neill.

"THE WIDOW'S VEIL", Alice Rostetter.

"STRING OF THE SAMISEN", Rita Wellman.

"NOT SMART", Wilbur D. Steele.

Every author, with one exception, has a book or more to his credit. Several are at the top of their profession.

Rita Wellman, a Saturday Evening Post star, has had two or threplays on Broadway, and has a new novel, "The Wings of Desire."

Cook and Glaspell are well known—he for his novels, and Miss Glaswell for novels and plays.

Edna Millay is one of America's best poets. Steele, according to O'Brien, is America's best short-story writer.

Oppenheim has over a dozen novels, books of poems, and essays to his credit.

O'Neill has a play on Broadway now: "The Emperor Jones."

Hutch. Hapgood is an author of note. A record of the work of the most serious and important of all the new theatre movements in America.

New York Sun: "Tense and vivid little dramas."

Dallas News: "Uniform in excellence of workmanship, varied in subject matter—the volume is a distinct contribution to American dramatic art.
